£8th. (To the King of Naples.) Monsieur man Frere : It was not without keen emotion that I received the letter of Your Majesty and your good wishes for my happiness. Your destiny, my successes, have placed vast countries between u.s: you in the south touch the Mediterranean; I touch the Baltic; but by the combination of our efforts we tend towards the same result. Your kingdom is rich and populated; by the grace of God it will become powerful and happy. Accept my mo.st sincere wishes for the prosperity of your reign, and always rely on my fraternal affection.

80th. I am starting, in the saddle, at 5 A. M.

Orders for headquarters to move immediately, to reach Makow to-night.

As the enemy are pushing the Prince of Ponte Corvo's corps, we must keep close to the wind so that they can't get away again. We shall have news to-night.

81st, Willenberg:

The whole army is marching.

February 1st. (To the Empress.) Your letter of the 20th of January has pained me; it is altogether Loo depressed. The mischief is that you've got no religion I You say that happiness makes your joy: that is not generous; you should say the happiness of others makes my joy: that is not conjugal; you should say, the happinesn of my husband makes my joy; that is not maternal; you should say the happiness of my children makes my joy; ami since the nations, your husband, your children cannot be happy without a little glory, you must not any fie to it, Josephine, your heart is excellent, but your mind m
